Lol'd
It's funnier when the obelisk or the AGT missiles does that to you.
That happened to me when I was run over by a Mammoth once (lag)

Last time we did, the server staid empty . So that leads me to believe people like lag and ping, so we kept it.

Actually, I'm so used to US based servers and the 200-220+ ping that when I played on your servers, the 50 ping made me shoot in front of everyone.

LOL yeah, it's one of the reasons I stick to ours now: I'm so used to my 50-100 ping that I can't hit anything when it gets higher again . Same goes for steady 60 SFPS, I must add.

I can't move for 5 seconds without obvious signs of lag.
350 ping +

Hey don't bag us

Is it just me or is max framerate in Ren 60 FPS?

Yeah I can get terrible lag sometimes...like when I think i've run out of a building but i really haven't.

Thus i never trust myself driving an apc lol
