The Renegade X mod team is hosting a community game of C&C Renegade. Check out this link for more details.

http://www.renegade-x.com/Forums/index.php?showtopic=1880

So if you're tired of just playing in public games with relatively no teamplay, check it out and let's have some fun.

I definitely want to do this, it's just a matter of scheduling tomorrow. 3PM is a perfect time for me, which is why it may be difficult :]

If I don't make it, best of luck with the game guys. This sounds awesome.

Hmmmmmmm...

Doesn't mean we'll have 100 people there I just didn't want any problems with the server being too full or whatever.

And with everyone on teamspeak, big player counts + teamwork is possible.

Team speak caused lag on the 100 player server last year... is there gonna be a similar problem this year?

It wasn't the teamspeak that caused the lag last year actually, there were some server problems (which were eventually fixed later in the game)

I have vent...

For Renegade X, would it be possible to have weakspots on some of the vehicles just to make people have to aim more inorder to have more effective shots? ie: tanks: turret motor on the bottom of the turet, mammy: the support rails under the guns, and for apcs the exit doors? just some examples. But that would definately help gameplay.

The thread has been updated with server information

So tomorrow is quickly approaching: if you've got nothing to do, show up for a bit for some good Renegaming.

Teamspeak Information that Fobby made in Renegade-X forums! I am sooooooooooooooooo excited about this...

FobbyEdit!:

Here is the server and teamspeak information for tomorrow's game!

Server IP: 75.126.220.122:4848
Teamspeak IP: 75.126.220.122:8769
Server and Teamspeak Password: elite1234

Here is the direct connect information:

"C:\Westwood\Renegade\game.exe" +connect 75.126.220.122:4848 +netplayername YourName +password elite1234

The server name is [NE] Public Warzone

Be on teamspeak 5 minutes in advance so we can prepare things, and as soon as you hop ingame, switch your teamspeak channel to the Nod or GDI rooms we have provided.

Yes. I've been working on getting my TS working. My desktop doesn't work with my head set for some reason (I tried different drivers.. no luck) so I am using my laptop for TS while playing on Eve (My desktop).

I am using a USB mouse as my PTT.

I was planning to stay till the server shut down. I had that MVP on City_Flying (my favorite map) lol but my damn rig crashed with 6 min to go..I was like "DAMN!"...

And when I tried to re-enter, it said password was invalid though I was typing the right password. I was like damn...

And I could not get back in...even I tried through Ren IP. It was invalid password.

But hey, there's always next year and I think everyone had a lot of fun! I had a lot of fun and got to meet many nice people.

Sucks that everyone left after I did, but I guess it shows a type of loyalty lol

But we played for a good hour and a half I guess, I had a lot of fun. Thanks to everyone who showed it, it was great.
