Okay maybe this was discussed in the past but is it me or the GDI Barracks doesn't have any spawners on City?

That's not what I meant. This has nothing to do with randomizing spawns. I meant the barracks doesn't have any spawners at all. Check level edit.

I spawned in the barracks on City once. I woke up while screaming out loud from this nightmare and I came at the same time.

Imao, that is true
I've added the spawners in the bar, u need them only if u run a server.

Spawners are server side. So we don't have to download a copy of the map to play on your server (unless you introduced something else that into the map that we don't already have in our Always.dat.

He edited the map and added spawners to the Barracks. It's just an .idd file to place in the data folder, not the actual map itself.
