How do you avoid oblisk in single player? Specifically the one in the stage that you need to take out temple of nod. I can't get past it

You can destroy it from a distance after knocking off the infantry in the surrounding area. I did it with rockets. A waste of ammo perhaps, but easy enough. Good luck.

Try to use the mammoth-tank.. From a save distance, start aiming at the tower....After a while the tower is destroyed.. (takes a while, but teaches you the skill for aiming with a vehicle )

My mammy was destroyed by the turret that hammered me while I was trying to kill a blackhand that was dancing around my tank.I fired Personal Ion Cannon at it, but it freakin repairs itself at a rate that I couldn't finish it off, by the time I run out of PIC, I switch to rocket and shoot at it, it is already back to 80\%

I can't find the construction yard, all I can find is the fenced temple (I think that's the temple), hand of nod, refinery and the annoying oblisk.

Which obelisk? You only face about 4 in the entire game... the first mission, the one with the dam, the one titled Obelisk of Opression, and one endgame. How DO you blow up the Obelisk of Opression? I saw the prima strat guide, and it said nuke it. Well, I get fried before I come even close to it!
