I desperatly need some help with dodging in this game because every first person shooter I've played I get frustrated with because I keep dieing and I end up stop playing it. I don't want to stop playing this game but it's hard for me to learn how to do it good enough like the pros do so please help me out.

Suggestions:- Sneak up on enemies from behind- Jump up and down and run around like a madman, keeping your recticle on the enemy- be an engineer, on the sidelines healing stuff or some other support unit.
