If anybody think the way as I do, just tell me... Would you find it great to have a way we could be sure to fight on the same side as our clan members, but in nonclan match???? I hate when I join a game and find myself shooting at my own teammates... ok, it's fun for a kill or two, but I would like to play WITH them sometimes, even if it's not a clan match.... what do u think????

Me too.I don't mind so much if the first game in a session puts us on opposite sides (no need to unbalance the match), but for the love of Pete... when the server remixes teams, put clanmates on the same side!!!
