It may have been a week to a few days but i was !forcerg by someone out of spite for sniping them. When this person forced me another person also did for the hell of it.

Today i was on n00bstores on the map field and i was hugging the enemy tunnel wall. I popped out for a split second and blew someones head off. Well you all know how it goes ohh no they killed me i think i will !forcerg them lol.

Anyways i had to get rid of my weapons i got from <http://www.game-maps.net/> to use renguard. Can you people ether un-force me or allow some of the weapons though rg???

Thanks people

You can go to the n00bstories forums and ask to have that removed.

I though renguard problems were handled from here and ban problems from the server owners site??

Yes, and a "!forcerg" is a server-specific issue.

So im a little confused i was forcerg on n00bstores and i have to ask them to unforce me right???

Also a quick question now that i am forced rg on the renguard network. Does that apply to just n00bstores can i join other renguard servers without renguard that i havent been forced???

I can get use to playing without the guns but this renguard is very unstable. It has twice now totally cut my renegade like if you were to end it in task manager.

And once it locked up my computer kinda like when you hit the quit game button sometimes and it locks.

When you're forced to use RG in a server, it's only for that server. You can play elsewhere without it.
