Over at General's HQ - <http://www.cncgenerals.cc> we have got a petition online with the aim of persuading Westwood to make a movie set within the Command & Conquer series. This is the dream for millions of C&C fans and with your help it could become a reality. Once we get enough signatures I will send the entries to Westwood Studios, and hope that it gets there attention to the fact that a C&C movie would be appreciated by people all over the world. Only with YOUR help can we achieve this aim, and change the face of Command & Conquer as we know it. So go on, head on over to <http://www.cncgenerals.cc> and sign the petition. Also, why not tell a friend or two?

a C&C movie would rule, although, that depends on how its done, the next big question is: what kind of movie should it be? an action movie (havoc, featuring himself as the new and improved john rambo) or more a 'real' war movie, like saving private ryan... or... a combination of war movie and espionage thriller?? (infiltration by nod agents)

If they would make one, let's hope it will not be such a bad movie like Final fantasy, the biggest flop in 2001. A real war with bases being build, tanks rolling over the battlefield would rule tough.
