That's what she said...Anyone have any clan openings? Or are clans pretty much a waste of time on Renegade these days?

There's still monthly tourneys on www.clanwars.cc. They're very competitive. If you look for a bit less competitive gaming, more focussed on the community aspect then you have clans like KOSs2 which I'm part of and some others ofcourse. We also do clanwars, just not that often and not that competitively.
