yeah taking over Westwood, then destroying the progress, then admitting that they screwed up, then offering free downloads.

Thanks for TFD though EA.

I Was Asking Where I Can Download It Or I Just Will Wait Until My Friend Brings Me His Copy If He Still Has It But I Am Not Sure If I Can Install It On Windows X.P. Because It Is Too Old

No. It Will Work With Windows X.P. Because EA Will Make Them Work With X.P. The Download Is Same Like The Download For The First C&C Game They Released For Free.

You Can Download The Games Here:

<http://www.ea.com/redalert/news-detail.jsp?id=62>

There Are Also Instructions On How To Make Them Run In X.P. And Vista. I Hope You Have A Good Time Playing These Games.

Bought RA1 over 10 years ago and still have the disk

I'll install it and play it anyway though.

I have the entire TFD installed and play most of the C&C games everyday. Nothing like booting up TS and playing through the missions; these games have something magical to them that I cannot find in any other game.

Why would EA release a downloadable version of a game that can't be played on the operating systems that they are making RA3 for?
