Hey, I've been searching around for a mod that would either let you play ALONE in a mp game, or a mod that would let you all be on the same side. Does anyone know where I can get either of those? I really want to test out mods, while waiting for someone else to come and help me test them out.

PM me if you would like to be my tester-of-mods-persone.

Thanks roshambo, that's what I needed, if it worked...

For some reason, it loads up, asks for a .dat file (there isn't one in the directory, or in data), I switch it to .exe, and it still doesn't recognize any of the .exe programs I have in the folder its looking through. HELP!

Also, I know how to play mp games in single player mode, but I wanted others to join, so your wrong dthdealer, sry.

I believe he means when he hosts a game, so that wouldn't work since it is only for servers...

So..... what would you advise....?

If this makes no sense, I miss read your post, and I would like it if you clarified it.
