Yeah, so the effort was threatened to be vetoed if there was a line put in that strictly made the bailout for American companies for American properties...

He probably received a C&D letter from whatever news station he had a clip from.

It basically said (and showed) that Paulson and Bush would have killed the bill had it excluded foreign bankers from the bailout, clearly showing that it wasn't to help out the American economy, especially as we saw $630 billion not do anything for the economy.

Well whatever it was, the economy affects everyone and it is all connected, you can't help one without helping the other, so you have to help everyone.

I'm not paying for bad foreign ventures, especially if I don't want to pay for bad AMERICAN ventures. Fuck that. It's not my job to reward corporations for their stupidity, no matter how many people it affects, including myself.

The sad thing... is that America is making Canada look like the real defenders of sound economic policy, free-markets, and Capitalism.

Enjoy your nationalized companies, United States of Venezuela.
