Well i have decided to release a model pack to any aspiring map maker out there, if there still are any . Basically it's a bare bones version of my own model that i have yet to release for my map for C&C Reborn. The file does have lightmaps included, 2 to be exact one Normal version and a Destroyed version both lightmaps can be manually disabled through RenX if not needed.

Holy fuck, that's cool. A good spinoff of the original, but more sexy.
