I would like you to stop posting screenshots with our material.

You don't credit us at all and you never asked us.

Here are a proof:

My door of the Reborn Refinery, Our Nod Sniper rifle. OUR MODEL OF TIMED C4!!!!

This is our material. STOP USING IT.

This community doesn't tolerate people who steal work of people. You are not allowed to post screenshots of our internal work or use them on your crappy renegade changes!

No as it is, he shows my work without permission and without credits.

This is not allowed!!!

So you are saying that no one is allowed to rip some W3d/textures/sounds from your Reborn, and use them for other games?

Or are you allowed to use them, but if you show them on for an example this forum you must indicate who made it?

He uses on several screenshots material that hasn't been released. So it's a leak.

Renardin, thanks for shitting up my thread. He didn't post that screenshot in this thread, yet you decided to hi-jack it.
This thread was supposed to be for the community, something nice that they have wanted for for some time. Nice one

No it isn't. The infantry Beta is out, but that is drastically different than the actual mod...

Somebody's PMSing. Yeah, you're okay with this, but holy shit, the fury we could expect from you if someone stole your work..

Nikoshow me this screenshots, if its true i will leave ren forever
I wonder if there is any. I find it hard to believe that even you would go so far as to rip things that aren't released. Anything's possible, however.

Ohooo. Well, the Sniper rifle and timed C4 I'm pretty sure are the same as in the public release. The doors I don't know about, and there still might have been changes to the weapons, so nevermind about what I said then.

The door, C4, and sniper that he mentioned are all already shown/released in the Public Infantry Beta.

(Technically not the door as it wasn't included in any official maps, but it was released to the mappers to use in fan maps)

The problem is is that he took it upon himself to move it to Renegade without asking/giving credit to the original creators.

stop being childish, why bother claiming your work as for we know it is yours. Still though u cannot sew him, he is using it in renegade. Reborn is based on renegade.

Scrin didnt release that stuf as his own made!
And indeed most people know that is from the reborn mod.

You are asking him to give credits in a screenshot to all the people who made it?

And if you dont want him to use it why dont you ask it nicely -.-
(instead you are posting in another thread about it etc)

Well if something in Reborn that is supposed to be kept secret from people until the next news post gets leaked out early, then he has every right to get angry. Especially since Scrin is now on the Reborn dev team.

I just went back onto the forum to try and find the post where someone on the dev team said that he was hired, but I can't find it now. Perhaps it was edited?

Anyway, the proof is that his name is bright green signifying he is a member of the team.
