Wittebolx C&C is my favourite. I can't stay entertained with regular C&C anymore.

Jelly servers all the way.

Before that, I used to play at Fnfall/Gamerz0ne servers, but eventually changed due the Fnfall/Gamerz0ne servers losing more and more playing at once on the server.

Not that I'm poor, but I can't hardly buy anything without my parents knowing and they don't favor games like Renegade much. I only have it because a friend got it for me.

I prefer the BlackIntel AOW server or TheKOSs2's classic AOW.

If those two get to be too much they both have an oldskool sniper server together.

Don't underestimate the value of 5 dollars! With the current change-values that's worth half a pizza in Denmark! That's a lot when you've just moved out!

Not to mention it was only a kick.

you guys are great!! lol

Reason it crashes is because the C&C server really needs players with scripts 3.x

if their are people on it that dont have it and you got let's say the EMP-Storm Crate (wich is based on 3.x) it could cause people to disconnect. but.. we have TT so when they finaly release their stuff it wont be a problem anymore

I thought I was banned because of a lucky shot? Ludicrous that you guys ban a member and regular of 6 years for killing a cloaked SBH (who was standing like a cactus in the middle of the tunnel, might I add) - that shit happens all the time.
