First off, I am new and NOT the skin master Scrin, though our names are similar.

I need a some comments and maybe some suggestions about my skinning (I do mostly weapon skins). And if you have some advice on how to make my skins look better, I am open to that as well.

The clip of the gun also matches the gun itself. This not the best screeny, but it will give you the main idea.

Here is the screen shot of my skin of the pistol, as well as the files if you want to download it:

I am a tron fan, and that isn't too much like tron. Mostly b/c tron's weapons are disks and tanks, but still. It's a verry nice gun, I was eluded by the title, I don't think that skin could me much better. Verry good, 2 .

Thanks for all comments, and I agree, Altzan's ingame ss is SO much better than the W3D pic of it.

I am working on the railgun next, and I will post it soon.
