Well, I have decided to just permanently use the way Altzan did in my last topic to post my skins, since getting screenies for first-person skins is WAY more difficult than a vehicle or building.

It sort of frustrates me how screenshots never live up to how the skin looks when I am previewing it in W3D mode, but here is my shotgun skin I made for you guys anyway:

How I did what now? The screencaps?

Yeah it's kind of frustrating.

Nice job btw.

get the renegade mod tools, install the w3d viewer.

extract the 1st person weapon models, stick em in the same folder as the skins you made.

load up the w3d file of the weapon you skinned, make a SS of those.

easy as 3,14159265 (pi, pie!)

Hmm, That's what I have been doing for all 3 skins.
