I prefer Caramel Macchiatos mostly. I don't really like Starbucks but the sad thing is is that it's been the only type of coffee-shop in town since JavaGirls closed (that place was great). I do sometimes get coffee from Sonic or McDonalds, but they don't really have any "cafes" (if you will) to sit at and chat.

Americanos ftw. Starbucks's espresso is pretty good.

I get my beans at Coffee Bean and Tea Leaf, though. Their medium-roasted Sumatra is some good stuff. My Bunn brews it nicely.

The aged Sumatra Starbucks had lately was pretty good. Bold, but very nicely balanced.

When I go, I usually get a Tall RedEye (cup of Americano with a shot of espresso dumped in), although if I'm feeling particularly manly, I sometimes get BlackEye (two shots) or PurpleEye (three shots). Starbucks are kind enough to give the fourth shot of espresso on the house if I get three, so it's a pretty good deal, considering.

Erm, a red eye is a cup of drip coffee with a shot of espresso dumped in.

I guess because even though he doesn't like the place, a lot of people do. I personally am no fan of coffee, but I don't see anything wrong with Starbucks (ofcourse that doesn't mean much, seeing as how I've never been there).

Just drink Dr. Pepper, I say

I can't put my finger on my favourite, but since Starbucks only has one menu. I'll go with that.

I got a prescription for all you Dr. Pepper drinkers, and it's called Mr. Pibb.

I've always found starbucks to be over rated. But than again I'm not a big coffee drinker.

I LOVE coffee... but I usually find myself going to Tropical Smoothie cafe to get one of their mocha madness smoothies with Cafe Bustelo coffee added to it... it's heavenly! Starbucks isn't bad, but they burn most of their coffee and the stuff's about two dollars more than it should be.
