I converted the phys gun from HL2 and converted it into the rep gun

Screenshot

Have fun!

- UPDATE

FULL VERSION HERE

Attatched is just the first and third person models, without the correct model for the back of your character, or as a powerup.

I made a special beam for this repairgun, its orange and looks very powerfull now
Only bad thing is that its a objects.ddb file which you need to use it.

Here comes more ninja post updating - I'll group all those files into one RAR for you...

Attatched are all the files from the original RAR and the two .W3D's you also uploaded. I'll link in first post also.
