Wow it surprises me game-maps.net doesn't seem to have the patch and every other place I checked doesn't have it either lucky for you I still have my copy of it

Here you go:

http://lone0001.neogods.net/Downloads/C&C_Renegade/Mods/scudStorm_1-00_Patch_1_full.exe

EDIT: 3 posts down there is the Moddb download link also(that I forgot about).

It seems our ss team is very inactive. And the rest of us are busy working of Battle for Dune.

Full mod is uploading atm but it is just a rar(probably the same as you have), there isn't an installer afaik.

I'm surprised you are hosting it on your ftp

And yes, our ScudStorm team is very inactive. :/ We have very lazy modelers! :cracks-whip:

Though, things should pick up pace very shortly...I HOPE!

Oh yeah i forgot to ask, on some pictures i saw more GLA vehs, a City map (a map with road texture), airstrikes and MUCH MORE, but why isnt it in that version? when will be the next update to play all the new stuff?

Can i join the Mod Team as a Mega FAN and a cheerleader?

Lazy skimmers too no doubt
Yes things will pick up, with a bang. A lot of people will be very surprised to see where it has gone while supposedly inactive.

Is still anybody interested in SCUD-Storm???

I've been the Origin Creator of that mod and since 2009 i started to work on its "relaunch". due to the fact that i got new pc and my renegade cd's has been damaged i had to buy it again but finally with the beginning of 2009 i started. there was some stuff i lost and so i had to rework many things but atm i guess the mod includes now everything it had before except for playable maps (only 1 for now). i am alone and could need all the help i can get with modding/testing. my plan was to make it public from the beginning this time so everybody can test and give me inspirations ideas or something to include. hope for positive reply.

pitty you lost everything, since the old release has major graphic issues that could had a easy fix.
