I bought the First Decade; by the way, its a great deal, and I can't get the multiplayer to work on Renegade. It tells me that I need to reinstall the game and use the right serial code. What? I never got a serial number! The installation doesn't give me an option to put in a serial code! I have the right registration codes. What am I missing?

Hello and welcome to renforums.

Could you tell us exactly what you do and when you get this message? Also show a screenshot of the message, please.

Do you use WOL or gamespy?
