I'm in the level where my partners run to their death and the level ends. Please give me a cheat to skip this level. The game is over without a cheat. Please help - I feel like I've wasted my money because of the horrible AI. Why do these idiots run into gunfire? Thanks in advance for a level skip cheat or a cheat that can put those idiots in God mode.

ummmm...he's talkign about single player. The way Sydney or Mobius or the Dead 6 run around like idiots into the enemy crossfire. Edit: I in no way support cheating. [April 03, 2002: Message edited by: TBone986] just let them go, let mobius or sydney go they are not going to die that easy, you are the one that kills them, trust me let them kill the nod soldiers. just let them go and don't shoot while they are in your way, anyways that game is so easy how couldn't you finish it, its simple.and my friend is working on a trainer keep looking on this forum because it will be out soon.

He's talking about sp so chill out. I don't see anything wrong with sp cheats. It can be frustrating as hell playing the same level over and over in any game, not to mention boring.I like to get my money's worth out of a game and if it takes a sp cheat I will use it. MP cheaters are another matter. I hate them with a passion. Cheats have ruined most of the mp games I use to love to play.
