Um, nope.

Meaning #1: based on racial intolerance

Nope again.

Meaning #2: discriminatory especially on the basis of race or religion

Nope, yet again.

I interpreted the tone of your post to be derogatory - as in "This is how Belgians actually write, lol... isn't that funny hahaha... etc"

If this was incorrect, try posting something with actual meaning and relevance, as the forum rules ask you to.

At any rate, the post in the topic was unneeded so the deletion still stands. This is quite easily "a public bash fest" (Check the rules, AGAIN) against a moderator's actions you disagreed with. According to the PM you sent me, you're complaining to Crimson. Fine, that's what she's there for. This topic does not need to exist.

This has also turned into a shit fest I will now have to spend my day off clearing up, thanks.

I just want to add one thing to this: on its own, writing "this is how Belgians write" may not seem like a very big deal. I think you should rather consider this PM in its context, namely the fact that ma1kel has been breaking a couple of forum rules - or at the very least pushing them - in numerous topics.

Aww, the entire point of starting a debate on altruism was to derail the topic. Fail mods.

Please do not attempt to derail threads. Altruism is a subject that is fun to debate, so go start your own topic.

If we're going to judge people by their avatars on an internet video game forum, I declare that since your avatar says you break stuff, you have downs syndrome and routinely destroy things.

I know, and believe it or not I completely agree, but certainly the avatar thing was stupid. Besides, Labradors kick ass.

Also, I'm sure I'm speaking for more than myself when I say Carrier does try too hard at times? Good mod overall but, uhh, this topic, for instance..

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Race_\(classification_of_human_beings\))

Quote:The term race or racial group usually refers to the categorisation of humans into populations or groups on the basis of various sets of heritable characteristics.[1] The most widely used human racial categories are based on visible traits (especially skin color, cranial or facial features and hair texture), and self-identification.

hnmmm.....

Either way though, you should have protested this privately, so the need for this thread isn't there. You are just attention seeking.

Self-identification to race could mean Barack Obama claiming that he's black, when in reality he's half white and half black.

Of course it's not going anywhere constructive. Even if my use of language wasn't 100% accurate (Oh, check the rules again... something in there about this NOT being a literature forum...) I still acted because his post was unneeded.

Now either present a valid complaint, in a mature fashion, or expect your topics to be locked.

In the mean time, I will keep these forums in some degree of order so you can read without having to scroll past spam or trolling, I'd like to think this place can achieve something.
