Same here, I can't get into a WOL game either, and when I have the most free time. I'm not in the mood for Daoc right now either.

They mite be doing stuff to the ladder/lag problems. Why do you guys complain all the time? I thought the FlyingBuzz Trojan Mod was a lesson to you all to be patient.

I can't believe no one checked the network status (for the game). It says the the servers go down every first and third wednesday for maintenance and if its accurate then they should be back up in 4 minutes from this post.Oh look my first post!

All game, chat, ranking, message boards, registration, and web services are online and running smoothly. No problems have been reported. Apparently, this is wrong... Network status is almost never up to date... so.....and Regular maintenance is conducted every month on the first and third Wednesday between the hours of 01:00 AM and 05:00 AM PST I dont know what time is it on your side of the country, but here we are 19:15. that means 16:15 PST, not 5 am.....Sorry to spoil your fun, but your first post was quite wrong[April 03, 2002: Message edited by: powerhouse]

Like dudes I'm shocked. Delphi posted about the trojan on the RA2 boards. He's telling everyone over there about it, and to delete any files from the mod. Did he post one like that on this board too? Sorry I had classes so I was away.
