I am looking for some people who want to help me with the website.
The site (<http://l2.mp-gaming.com>) is in english only now, i would like to support five languages including English, Dutch, Spanish, French and German.

We already found someone willing to translate the site to German, i myself am Dutch so i can do the Dutch part.
But, being Dutch, i don't know Spanish, Italian or French

Is there anyone interested in helping me out? PM me on the forums here please
I am also on irc.mp-gaming.com in channel #mp-lineage2 if you need me

Thanks a lot

If you don't have too much text, I can translate it to French. But I'm a busy man .

Because being a certain nationality makes you unable to learn certain languages.

I'm British, so I'm naturally unable to learn any language except my own

Yeah, but their language was (and almost is) our language.

I used to be able to do French, but it's been a while since I tried.

I haven't been able to do anything yet and it doesn't seem like I'll have the time in the near future. I'm sorry, I know I said I would but there's been some stuff coming up lately making my spare time very limited. I think it's better if u could find someone else.

Again: sorry, I don't usually retract any offers.

Finding someone to translate into French will be hard. All the people that can do it will end up surrendering to the site.
