A re-done Nod 500 to look more wartorn and shot at.
I couldn't get any decent shots in-game so I'll just post the photoshop ss.

Looks like he got the broken glass skin file and placed it over

Sometimes a simple lil change can give something a nice new refreshing look.

Also note what looks to be some bullet holes in the torso area.

Nothin really new, still pretty cool. To make it look better, could have added more wounds/bullet holes. Meh...

I think it's quite good, simple but effective. The face shield doesn't look as nice as perhaps it might, but overall not bad. And it's refreshing to see a texture which does not use neon green everywhere to make it easier to spot.

This is one of those kind of skins that is just solid quality, so much that I just have to comment on it and compliment the author to make him feel good in order to nudge him to do more like it.

Hint.

Nice skin bro. I like these simple skins. Keep it up. Not many good sniper skins out there :/
