Renhalo isn't nearly as productive as it once was, after APB exploded at me for using one of their models in my test, didn't even release it, but I accidentally posted a pic with it shown in it (I did give them credit for it but they really didn't care, and the model has been removed from it just to make sure if I ever get it done I wont end up having bricks shat at me). But I spend the majority of my time on RP2 now so progress on Renhalo is very slow, it might pick up after I get past level 12.

If you wanna see a pic of it just search for my name on www.apathbeyond.com forums and look for the "Jerad2142 Edition" its a blog, you can't miss it.
