I remember that i drank:

---

Half Vodka 40%
and another Vodka 37,8% (5 Cup's)
2 normal Vodka beer's (just 5%)
and another mix thing (5%)

After that i was more than K.O. but i didnt went to hospital

91% CCCP (vodka) hits your head. And its gg no re
1st. There is no vodka with 91% alcohol.
2nd. Around half a bottle of a drink with 91% alcohol would litteraly kill you, unless you are like 3 million pounds of pure obese. Even if you take as many as 2 chugs you would start hallucinating.

Take Everclear, or a similar high-proof grain alcohol, and mix it with something with more taste, like a beer or strong juice.
