Okay, well I've seen a LOT of snow maps, or reskins for snow maps, etc. I'd really love to have almost all of my maps all snowy and everything. I know of at least 5 others that would like this too, and I had an idea to make a collaborative file with all the maps as such. If people could post links, etc to files / threads that are downloadable snow maps, then I'll more or less go through them, check out the textures, and when done post up a .zip with all those maps in it.

So could people help me with this, by posting links?

EDIT: Got the one by Reloaded

That would be great

EDIT: I'll also be editing textures so they all fit together, so only if you're alright with that

Its been a while since I did anything to them but as far as I know they did fit really well. The trees are stil green though lol.

They are not renamed like Reloaded's they are just original texture replacements.

I need to re-collect snow files for Islands.
EDIT: Done.
