Please help me and everyone who hates wasting money on "premium" themes. Do this by going here and posting all the 360 themes that have friend structures and aren't just backgrounds. Thank you for your help.

I'm trying to do something nice for the 360 community.. U don't have a 360 do you? Most themes they have on the marketplace are just backgrounds. Good themes will have objects behind your friends avatar on your friends list. I'll get an ss to explain what I mean when I get a chance.

This is what I'm trying to gather a list of. A lot of the themes just have the default xbox structures. It's cooler to have objects related to your theme.
