ok Queen I like the silver but the blades were done by "UnitXc" need to always give credit. I'd like the Apache better if the blades matched the chopper.

Also please provide download links.

Version 2 Is in a Video DEMO, not a SS

If u download the 2 You will see different details that don't show up on SS or Video.

Just impose circle shapes over the center of the dds. I know there maybe a better way but that always works for me.

If it's something like this:

Then the blade tips will turn out to be maroon while the rest of the blade will be black. hope this helps...

Even a blowhard like you should know how ridiculous it is to just provide another forum's home page address as a download link.

If I came to the St0rm forum and posted a screenshot of a skin I made and wanted everyone to use, and gave the download link as www.renegadeforums.com, wouldn't you go mad? Would you then want to go through renegadeforums.com to find the skin I wanted you to use? You would be lying if you said "yes."

What annoys me the most about you is your arrogance, blatant hypocrisy (in failing to see the point of GLOCK's post) and buttrubbing to support your friend that goes flying over the roof everytime you post.

EDIT: And what GLOCK and ErroR posted had NOTHING to do with queen and his hacks.

im sure st0rm would be more than happy to accomodate any skins you would like to post and INFACT darknight has already done EXACTLY that, he posted 3 lots of skins with links to renbattle forums if im not mistaken so in regard to that coment your a dick who is assuming things

and it has everything to do with you and other idiots thinking queen used hacks, queen would have continued to post all his skins here with no links to the st0rm forums if you and ppl like you hadn't winged @ him and ridiculed him with no solid proof, his post would continue to be downloadable here instead of taking his wares elsewhere

to think that you & glocks comments have nothing to do with it shows your own ignorance and hypocray and the real fact that you have absolutely no idea what your talking about and the only reason you replied to this in the first place is to get some ego building point, SO BEFORE YOU COME ON HERE THINKING YOU KNOW WHAT THE FUCK YOUR TALKING ABOUT GET YOUR FACTS STRAIGHT ASSHOLE

EDIT: of course im going to be here supporting a mate because he hasnt done anything wrong AND YOU HAVE NO PROOF TO PROOVE TO ME OTHERWISE

and if someone decides to post the original pics as proof, in my eyes that is not enough proof, i believe you've all made your assumptions on an inconclusive picture and the only reason why your all stupidly agreeing with one another IS BECAUSE YOUR TOO GAD DAMN LAZY TO GO AND SPEND TIME GETTING YOUR OWN PROOF, so dont bother because im just gunna tell you to go stick the pictures up your ass

Because it is fact, and the screenshot is enough proof

It's just that you and his "friends" are protecting him... and people who believe it isn't Queen, are just dumb.

Now, let me state a rule of this "Release" section:

- Attach your release to your forum post, unless your release is too big to be attached. This is very important as it's the only way to make sure that in a couple of months/years, your download still exists

So, Queen isn't following the rules, bad him!

And Goobers, you seriously don't get the point of Starbucks' post, so don't make stupid responses about it. For example: You create a topic, stating that you saw a screenshot of the newest Command & Conquer game. Now people wonder what is. You give them a link: www.EA.com. Now people have to search through the ENTIRE site, before finding it. A direct link would solve it...

I'm so jealous of Queen, he has his own personal stalker DutchNeon who obviously has nothing better to do with this time then follow queen around and has to hide to do it.

Dutchy if your still bored may i recommend some sites I'm on to give you something else to do with your time.

You have no proof he cheats. You have never played with queen. Queen I'm not putting you down but if your cheating you suck at it big time.

I'd bet real money that half the people slamming queen including Dutch have downloaded cheats.

NOT INTENDED AT YOU DARK BUT YOU DUTCH AND ALL WHO THINK THE SAME YOU DO your clearly only reading what you want to believe from my replys, im not protecting him, if he wants to use *cheat name removed* in a multiplayer setting and get caught and banned thats his problem i wouldnt defend that, BUT HE DIDNT, what your all saying by having him banned from servers because of his picture is that, according to the renegade forums community, a player isnt allowed to use cheats in a private lan game, you cant tell me on a game you have at home, for comp ps3/2/1 xbox wii nintendo that you have never cheated, cause thats bullshit, you might not cheat online, but i bet youve gone to cheat planet or another cheat suplying website and found a god mode extra cash extra health all weapons for your ps games, some pc games, there's no difference with queen he used his cheats offline

its not against any rules for me to use cheats on my games at home, but it is online, i accept that, what i dont accept is that apparently according to you all, if i use cheats offline i can still be bant online, and that's just bullshit

ive used cheats playing simcity4 you gunna ban me for that, ive used cheats playing crash bandicoot on my ps2 you gunna ban me for that, ive used cheats playing AOE to get more money on the mission levels ban me for that, i have even used cheats on generals redalert medievil nfs-underground AND RENEGADE MISSIONS to gain extra money god mode and all weapons on the mission levels, all in private missions when i play them at home by myself, YOU GUNNA BAN ME FOR THAT BECAUSE THERE'S NO DIFFERENCE FORM ME CHEATING ON THOSE THAN WHAT QUEEN DID, he used cheats ingame OFFLINE like everyone of you have and you have the ticker to ridcule him

queen cheated in private offline. and that's why i think everyone who has a crack at him are just stupid hypocrites, yourself included

its stupid to destroy someone from renegade from a ss which shows no proof of multilayer online use, i find it hypocritical that ppl say hes an idiot for having *cheat name removed* when 50% of those ppl probably use it or have it, then i find it even more ridiculous that after you've dragged him through the mud you demand he do what you want

he dose what he wants to do with his wares and makes you all work that little bit harder to get his products because you all clearly are hypocrites

he now posts links that are more direct than just st0rm.net, which will take you to the page that the download link is on for that skin, but as for releasing skins directly to renforums, i think you have burnt your bridges on that one

cheers goobers

EDIT: i bet 80% of all of you have *cheat name removed*rg h sitting in a file on your desktop somewere, you might have taken it out of the data folder, but youve tried it before just to see what it is like and what it dose, only about 10% of ppl who download it are actually stupid enough to use it in an ONLINE MULTIPLAYER GAME

scenario this, if i owned my own server and i allowed ppl to use *cheat name removed*rg h on it would you all go on and ban every person playing from other servers just because players are using *cheat name removed*rg h with the server owners permission, they might be using cheats but in that server it would not be against any rules, as long as they dont use *cheat name removed*rg h in a server that dose deny the use of cheats they have done nothing wrong

cheers again

Even a blowhard like you should know how ridiculous it is to just provide another forum's home page address as a download link.

If I came to the St0rm forum and posted a screenshot of a skin I made and wanted everyone to use, and gave the download link as www.renegadeforums.com, wouldn't you go mad? Would you then want to go through renegadeforums.com to find the skin I wanted you to use? You would be lying if you said "yes."

What annoys me the most about you is your arrogance, blatant hypocrisy (in failing to see the point of GLOCK's post) and buttrubbing to support your friend that goes flying over the roof everytime you post.

EDIT: And what GLOCK and ErroR posted had NOTHING to do with queen and his hacks.

and it has everything to do with you and other idiots thinking queen used hacks, queen would have continued to post all his skins here with no links to the st0rm forums if you and ppl like you hadn't winged @ him and ridiculed him with no solid proof, his post would continue to be downloadable here instead of taking his wares elsewhere

to think that you & glocks comments have nothing to do with it shows your own ignorance and hypocray and the real fact that you have absolutely no idea what your talking about and the only reason you replied to this in the first place is to get some ego building point, SO BEFORE YOU COME ON HERE THINKING YOU KNOW WHAT THE FUCK YOUR TALKING ABOUT GET YOUR FACTS STRAIGHT ASSHOLE

Because it is fact, and the screenshot is enough proof

It's just that you and his "friends" are protecting him... and people who believe it isn't Queen, are just dumb.

Now, let me state a rule of this "Release" section:

- Attach your release to your forum post, unless your release is too big to be attached. This is very important as it's the only way to make sure that in a couple of months/years, your download still exists

So, Queen isn't following the rules, bad him!

And Goobers, you seriously don't get the point of Starbucks' post, so don't make stupid responses about it. For example: You create a topic, stating that you saw a screenshot of the newest Command & Conquer game. Now people wonder what is. You give them a link: www.EA.com. Now people have to search through the ENTIRE site, before finding it. A direct link would solve it...

NOT INTENDED AT YOU DARK BUT YOU DUTCH AND ALL WHO THINK THE SAME YOU DO

your clearly only reading what you want to believe from my replys, im not protecting him, if he wants to use *cheat name removed* in a multiplayer setting and get caught and banned that's his problem i wouldn't defend that, BUT HE DIDN'T, what you're all saying by having him banned from servers because of his picture is that, according to the renegade forums community, a player isn't allowed to use cheats in a private lan game, you can't tell me on a game you have at home, for comp ps3/2/1 xbox wii nintendo that you have never cheated, cause that's bullshit, you might not cheat online, but i bet you've gone to cheat planet or another cheat supplying website and found a god mode extra cash extra health all weapons for your ps games, some pc games, there's no difference with queen he used his cheats offline

it's not against any rules for me to use cheats on my games at home, but it is online, i accept that, what i don't accept is that apparently according to you all, if i use cheats offline i can still be bant online, and that's just bullshit

a lan game is the equivalent of playing the normal renegade missions and using cheats on multilayer maps, BUT NOT MULTIPLAYER SERVER GAME

i've used cheats playing simcity4 you gonna ban me for that, i've used cheats playing crash bandicoot on my ps2 you gonna ban me for that, i've used cheats playing AOE to get more money on the mission levels ban me for that, i have even used cheats on generals redalert medievil nfs-underground AND RENEGADE MISSIONS to gain extra money god mode and all weapons on the mission levels, all in private missions when i play them at home by myself, YOU GUNNA BAN ME FOR THAT BECAUSE THERE'S NO DIFFERENCE FORM ME CHEATING ON THOSE THAN WHAT QUEEN DID, he used cheats ingame OFFLINE like everyone of you have and you have the ticker to ridicule him

queen cheated in private offline. and that's why i think everyone who has a crack at him are just stupid hypocrites, yourself included

it's stupid to destroy someone from renegade from a ss which shows no proof of multilayer online use, i find it hypocritical that ppl say he's an idiot for having *cheat name removed* when 50% of those ppl probably use it or have it, then i find it even more ridiculous that after you've dragged him through the mud you demand he do what you want

he dose what he wants to do with his wares and makes you all work that little bit harder to get his products because you all clearly are hypocrites

he now posts links that are more direct than just st0rm.net, which will take you to the page that the download link is on for that skin, but as for releasing skins directly to renforums, i think you have burnt your bridges on that one

EDIT: i bet 80% of all of you have *cheat name removed* rgh sitting in a file on your desktop somewere, you might have taken it out of the data folder, but you've tried it before just to see what it is like and what it dose, only about 10% of ppl who download it are actually stupid enough to use it in an ONLINE MULTIPLAYER GAME

scenario this, if i owned my own server and i allowed ppl to use *cheat name removed* rgh on it would you all go on and ban every person playing from other servers just because players are using *cheat name removed*rg with the server owners permission, they might be using cheats but in that server it would not be against any rules, as long as they dont use *cheat name removed*rg in a server that dose deny the use of cheats they have done nothing wrong

using *cheat name removed*RGH in lan game is not against any server rules having *cheat name removed*RGH on your computer is not any server rules

USING *cheat name removed*RGH IN MULTIPLAYER ONLINE IS AGAINST SERVER RULES

queen did not break that rule and so the ban and subsequent posts on him is ridiculous

EDIT:

i have noticed ppl are starting to get less factual about their reply's and more personal with their attacks on my comments, which personally doesn't bother me im used to it, but i would prefer to hear a good argument for your case against the shit you've put queen through, prove that you've banned him for something that's not against the rules, prove that he was ingame when he was using, prove that using cheats while not online is a rule that EVERY server who has banned him has, prove that what im saying is not the truth and ill shut up i know you cant though, you've banned him for using cheats whilst not online which is not against any rule of any server

my evidence is undeniable and the sooner you all realize it the sooner i can occupy myself with something more entertaining

What annoys me the most about you is your arrogance, blatant hypocrisy (in failing to see the point of GLOCK's post) and buttrubbing to support your friend that goes flying over the roof everytime you post.

EDIT: And what GLOCK and ErroR posted had NOTHING to do with queen and his hacks.

im sure st0rm would be more than happy to accomodate any skins you would like to post and INFACT darknight has already done EXACTLY that, he posted 3 lots of skins with liks to renbattle forums if im not mistaken so in regard to that coment your a dick who is assuming things

and it has everything to do with you and other idiots thinking queen used hacks, queen would have continued to post all his skins here with no links to the st0rm forums if you and ppl like you hadn't winged @ him and ridiculed him with no solid proof, his post would continue to be downloadable here instead of taking his wares elsewhere

to think that you & glocks comments have nothing to do with it shows your own ignorance and hypocrasy and the real fact that you have absolutely no idea what your talking about and the only reason you replied to this in the first place is to get some ego building point, SO BEFORE YOU COME ON HERE THINKING YOU KNOW WHAT THE FUCK YOUR TALKING ABOUT GET YOUR FACTS STRAIGHT ASSHOLE

and if someone decides to post the original pics as proof, in my eyes that is not enough proof, i believe you've all made your assumptions on an inconclusive picture and the only reason why your all stupidly agreeing with one another IS BECAUSE YOUR TOO GAD DAMN LAZY TO GO AND SPEND TIME GETTING YOUR OWN PROOF, so dont bother because im just gunna tell you to go stick the pictures up your ass

All the links Darkknight posted in the St0rm forums had a Batman logo linking directly to the topic or download. So your point is moot.

Your second point is not making sense; so queen is no longer posting the direct download links because we all ridiculed him and his skins? So are you saying he making us work extra hard to get to his skins?

As far the crap in your third paragraph, you conveniently ignore my FIRST post in THIS thread. Go on read it: so yeah I was just helping queen to the best of my knowledge to get "some ego building point" huh?

And the funniest thing that cracks me up about all this is I did not even read the posts of GLOCK and ErroR till you came in and vomited at GLOCK. Only then did I go back and read the thread fully from the beginning to see what an arrogant animal you are. In fact, this thread went to hell BECAUSE of your first post.

As far as the cheating goes, remember idiot, NOBODY mentioned about queen and his hacks in this thread and NOBODY cares. But you stupidly brought that argument into this thread when replying to ErroR in your second post. It is damn commonsense to post a direct download link; it's in the rules for Mod Release. And when someone pointed that out, you choose to ignore that and went instead on a ridiculously stupid buttrubbing rant.

You should quit posting about queen/hacks and what not because nobody gives a crap. I don't give a crap.

Goobers wrote on Sat, 02 May 2009 05:52. this argument is post specific, i will not start a new post nore ill i stop discussing it while ppl reply.

Yea right Darknight, I'm a stalker.

I'm just here to ruin Queen's day. Sure Goobers, you are allowed to use *cheat name removed* in a LAN game, BUT IT HAS NO USE USING IT WITH A 1 VS 0 GAME. Now, as I stated it before, this would mean 3 things:

- Queen used *cheat name removed* daily, and forgot to turn it off (habit).
- Queen forgot to turn *cheat name removed* off, after a game in a pub server.
- Queen thought it was useful in a 1 vs 0 game (lol).

And Darknight, you don't know if I have played with Queen. I have got a lot of smurf names on WOL (2-3 serials ftw). I frequently use them. And still, even if I haven't played with him, a screenshot says a thousand words, and the lying of Queen says enough about it (he denied it with 3 different reasons, changing from 1 reason to another).

And FYI information Goobers, there is a really easy way to find out if some1 had *cheat name removed* on his computer or not. Certain files are recorded in your register, if you download cheats (a lot of injection methods use .dlls).

And yea Darknight, a lot of people download cheats, including me. So what, I don't use it pub games. Heck, now before stating Queen did the same, read my 3 reasons above. Now the funny thing is, you were denying everything of using cheats in your "Ren career". I'm pretty sure you tried out a few too, but for some reason you don't dare to admit it.

Now, if Queen just posted his skins in the regular way, before he posted the famous cheats, people might forget about it. I don't care seriously, but Queen was happy to be an arrogant prick towards me, because I quoted something of him.

I have probably more "life" then you have. You seem to post "Get a life" or "You have no life" when you start to lose a discussion with arguments (hint: God doesn't exist topic!). Consider something better then that, as you are just wasting your time on wrong assumptions about people.

Ahh Dark. You think I follow him? Not really. I just post on his topics on this forum, as it is fun to see his friends going mad on other people.

Purely my assumptions? Read the entire topic where he posted the cheat screenshots. You will see I'm not the only1 assuming that.

Yea, I admitted trying out cheats. How do you know I don't use cheats on public servers? Go follow me all my games, recording me, and you will see. Heck, I have been banned for *cheat name removed* from the Jelly Servers. I eventually got unbanned BECAUSE I recorded the game (a friendly mod warned me that the a few mods / admins where watching me, so I started recording all my games on the Jelly Servers, to proof that I wasn't cheating), where the mods thought I used RGH. Pretty sure a lot of server owners / admins / mods have tried several cheats too, to see how they work, flaws in them etc, but not in public servers. It's even fun to create custom objects.dbb, and trying them out with friends.

The screenshot proofs this:

- Queen used *cheat name removed* daily, and forgot to turn it off (habit).
- Queen forgot to turn *cheat name removed* off, after a game in a pub game (skillless much?)
- Queen thought it was useful in a 1 vs 0 game (lol).

Now, this leads to the point that he tried it in pub games.

The thing that leads to this conclusion, is that Queen needs to lie about the reason. Dark, explain to me WHY Queen needed to lie about the reason why he used them? Well? Certain people, like Goobers, already admit that he used a cheat in a LAN game, but WHY O WHY does Queen need to lie about the reason behind it? Queen even denies it is him, denying he used it in a LAN game.

As Goztow stated:

Quote:Everyone here seems to look over the fact that his first reply was to deny that he took the screenshots, something that's VERY hard to believe. If you believe he took the screenshots and you see him deny it, then there's only one conclusion to make. Will you, as server owner, take the risk? Be my guest

And

Quote:If you're oh so innocent, maybe u can tell us who this Dell dude is, then?

And

Queen has lied about those things. If he just admitted using cheats, we wouldn't have this discussion about it.

I'm not stating, as again, that you cheating in Renegade (on public servers), but I'm pretty sure you tried a few out.

As about the arrogant asshole (prick):

<http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php?t=msg&th=33042&start=0&rid=2> 2151

Read my post and his. I was just wondering why started releasing stuff again (suddenly) after 8-9 days. And I get that response.

Now to conclude something. I seriously don't care if Queen cheated or not. I honestly don't care if people cheat or not. The thing is, cheaters are still humans, although it's pretty weak to use cheats in pub servers. The thing I like about this "Queen drama", is that Queen denies everything. He changed reasons for his denying, which proves that he is lying. Now, Goobers admits that he used cheats in a LAN, which isn't illegal. Sure is. It's just that Queen even denies it is him, which makes no sense. This leads to this (Goztow's quote again):

Quote:Everyone here seems to look over the fact that his first reply was to deny that he took the screenshots, something that's VERY hard to believe. If you believe he took the screenshots and you see him deny it, then there's only one conclusion to make. Will you, as server owner, take the risk? Be my guest

Queen also got banned from the Jelly servers. I'm not sure what the real reason was, but let me post this:

The Jelly Servers are pretty much the most populated servers nowadays in Renegade. They have excellent admins. Raven is one of them. Now, if Raven stated he watched Queen days before he posted the famous *cheat name removed*screenshots, which were just icing on the cake, I honestly believe him (and I'm pretty sure a lot of people on this forum would agree with me). This would mean that Queen was cheating in public servers (Jelly Servers) days before he posted the screenshots, probably RGH. This would then strengthen my point that Queen was using *cheat name removed*as a habit, which makes him guilty. Queen though keeps denying, which makes him more guilty.

bullshit on the excellent admins at jelly server. Ill never step foot in their servers again after what I experienced in a game.

We were winning. Only had the Power plant left and I had the only med tank left. They were all keeping me repaired while i defended our base. Was doing it for about 15 min when a jelly mod tells me to get out of my tank cause he wanted it. Told me if i didn't get out he would have me kicked from the server. Everyone in the server was like why, he is defending our base. I was doing nothing wrong the mod just wanted my tank.

Yeah excellent mods my ass. That statement you made right there about how good the mods are just showed me what you really do know.

Killgeak wrote on Sat, 02 May 2009 11:31 just the fact that he has it on his computer and using them makes him a cheater really are you sure you want to lock in that stupid reply. im mean seriously, congratulations you win the stupidest thing ever posted regarding this matter award, i dont think you meant it sarcastically at all, you add that to make your post seem innocent idgit

-the foto dosent prove that the *cheat name removed*is on his computer, it proves that it was on the computer he was using at the time he took the pic, the computer need not be his
-the foto dosent prove that he uses them online, the pic proves that he uses them in private
-and even know i also assume it is him, the foto dosent PROVE that its him at all, and although you and i can assume its him, the only person who actually knows if it is or not is him, and no one else can prove otherwise unless they were standing behind him when he took the pic

having suspicion of a player ingame is normal for any mod and shows raven knows what he's doing, what your saying is a cheat used offline and a suspicion of 1 mod on 1 server is good enough to ban a person from as many servers as renforums can get there sticky little fingers on and drag the mans name through the mud

can ppl stop posting saying that this post has nothing to do with queens infamous forum bashing and that i brought the subject back up, 2glocks brought it back up when he winged about queen not posting direct links to his skins

-and the reason why he dosent anymore is because you all cracked at him for using cheats offline so it is related, stop telling me its not answer me this one question, scenario2 - say i downloaded *cheat name removed*and used it offline and told you i used it offline and you had no proof to show that i used in via online multiplayer means, would that in your eyes warrant me being banned from every ren server around because other than the fact that you have a foto and evidence against me would be verbal there is no difference

im also still waiting for a screenshot from ANY legit server that has in their rules IF YOU CHEAT OFFLINE AND NOT IN OUR SERVER YOU WILL BE BANNED, cause thats what youve basically done Hahaha. Seriously, if that is the knowledge of you Just because you say something means it is a fact?

First of, You have no proof of that. I could (it maybe actually happened!) make up a story too about such a thing on the Renbattle.net server.

I could just make a poll about which mods are better (Jelly or Renbattle), and I'm pretty sure that most of the people on this forum would vote for the Jelly mods. Of course, without hijacking it from both sides.

Now, even if it happened, it wasn't Raven. You could easily also have "corrupted" mods. Heck, I ask you, what was the name of the mod? Maybe it was a temp mod? o,O

Besides that, I know WAY more about Renegade, then you do, so don't conclude statements without ANY SOLID proof. According to you, the screenshot of Queen doesn't proof he cheats. And now, we have to believe some1, who has no proof of what he just said, who also is defending a cheater, that Jelly mods are corrupted? Right

Edit: Better not turn this topic into a Jelly Server vs Renbattle.net discussion :\ As that isn't really the topic.

I have arguments for what I say, you hardly don't. You tell us a story, and we have to believe it. I got arguments though for Queen being a cheater. Sure, I don't have arguments for Jelly having great mods, but I can easily proof that people on this forum have more trust in Jelly Mods then in RenBattle.net mods. Now, a poll result could be used as an argument.

A story = proof? So yea, I was playing on the RenBattle.net server, and a unknown mod banned me because I bought a stank! OMG! And yea, it's true! Sadly, I have no record or screenshot of it, but according to Dark, stories are true, just like that God exists! This actually really happened. Just because you don't believe me doesn't make it any less the truth.

Based on what? You are saying that I have no knowledge of the situation. Pretty much I do. And you said you ever tried out any cheats. Now, tell me something about the existing cheats, netcoding, engine etc for Renegade, and we will see

And for my last edit. I said that because I made an argument with the Renbattle.net vs Jelly mod corruption. I then edited my post, hoping you wouldn't made a big fuss about it, as that would result in a discussion about which mods are better between us, which wasn't my intention. You gladly didn't, and I will try not involving any mod wars between both communities. I'm just a regular on the Jelly Servers, while you are a Renbattle.net mod (admin?), so making a "mod war" isn't the best thing to do. I was a Gz0ne/Fnfall mod though, so I have some knowledge of certain things, but that doesn't involve being a mod at the Jelly servers.

Why would i make up a story about a server just to keep myself from playing on it??

I play on N00bstories, St0rm, Renbattle, Kamiux and few others. Why would I just pick out one server unless something happened to make me not want to play on it again.

You mentioned how awesome Jelly was, I disagree. I'm sure if you had a bad experience on a server you wouldn't go back to it either.

i dont support online cheaters
i have no beef with cheaters using offline as it is not against any rule

i do have a beef with banning ppl for a made up rule which im still waiting for evidence it exists, thus far no one can prove to me it dose the imaginary rule under which queen was banned is if you use cheats offline and we don't have proof you cheat on our server we will bann you.....?

any proof to which such rule exists.....?, it would seem im not the only retard, but the ppl that made and then subsequently supported the ban can also be labeled retarded, yourself included

I'm not saying you are lying. I'm just trying to point out that every1 can make up stories. I have had no proof that my story actually happened, but it could have happened, or not.

With no proof, there is no truth behind a story for others (examples are myths like Loch Ness, with no solid proof of her existence besides people claiming that they saw her).

And I didn't claimed "Jelly is awesome!", I claimed that a lot of Jelly mods / admins (nowadays) are pretty good. Raven is one of them.

@ goobers,

Quote:you the "official" renforum community are responsible for the unwarranted ban on a player for a made up rule and until you either apologize and or drop it

Hahaha,

Goobers, another showcase of "retarded people". Nothing good to say? Read your posts, and mine. Pretty much all your posts are: "Queen isn't a cheater, unban him, and the people who banned him are idiots".

I have had good posts, with arguments. You are the ignorant guy here, not me, and you probably didn't even read my post. You are just going to continue supporting a cheater, trying to get him unbanned on servers (something that will NEVER work). Now you only created posts with arguments, of how retarded we are, and why it isn't illegal to cheat on LAN. Sure is, but I have shown why he should be banned anyway. Queen lying continuously. I bet you can't even proof why Queen has to continuously lie, changing reasons etc. Now, that is enough proof that Queen can be banned.

Goobers, I advice you this (Dover's picture ftw):

Go back to Renbattle, with your beloved friend Queen

Goobers,

I will say it nicely.

In your eyes the SS was not proof. But server owners are NOT going to take a risk. You have to understand it from a server owner's perspective.

If they do what you are saying...that is, if they wait for FURTHER PROOF (like as if the SS was not enough proof already), then they stand a great risk of said player using cheats in one of their games ruining it for EVERYONE and also having a chance of escaping without getting caught.

It's like catching a well-armed suicide bomber before he even had a chance to blow himself up. Are you going to argue that there is NO PROOF he was going to blow himself up? Hey, what we are saying is, we caught a suicide bomber, he was wearing shitloads of bombs all over him and we are not going to release the fucker from our maximum security prison.

And what YOU are saying to get him released is: NO, he had the bombs all over his body BUT there was NO proof he was going to blow himself up. You gotta understand, Queen's screenshot EQUALS the suicide bomber's bombs. Server owners will not see it any other way; in other words, they are not going to agree to release the suicide bomber and WAIT for him to blow himself up. Once you see and understand this analogy, you will see why nobody is caring about what you say and why it is quite pointless of you to keep posting to get Queen unbanned from most servers.

And to make matters worse, Queen's constant story changing regarding the origins of the SS did not help AT ALL.

So, the server owners here have a more valid and legitimate cause to stick to their decisions than to listen to your argument.

Seriously wow. Seriously... Dude this is just plain ridiculous. He cheated on a lan game, he may have cheated in a pub game, oh well. We all know for a 100% fact he has *cheat name removed* on his computer. Shit, just 2 nights ago I was playing with Queen and not once did I suspect him of *cheat name removed* at all. We were gdi, he didn't know where the hell stanks were [someone with *cheat name removed* would either go exactly to them or sorta "edge" there way to them making it unnoticeable].

This topic is about skins, not about him cheating. Now everyone, stfu and get back on topic. This is really ridiculous honestly..

He doesn't deserve a server ban from ever server owner that saw that ss. That's just plain ridiculous. I'm not backing him, nor am I bashing him, but if you have played with him you can tell he don't cheat.

Anyway, /end rant

Everyone else, /stfu too.

Nice skins btw.

First, let's get this out of the way: Queen's skins are ugly and garbage, and in no situation would I use them over vanilla Rengegade.

Secondly, because apparently some people still think "DELL" is another guy, when you start up a LAN game, the default name is the name of your computer (Mine is HOME1, or something equally retarded). Chances are, Queen is using a Dell computer and never bothered changing his name for that particular set of pictures.

So, that leaves us with what? A screenshot of Queen using *CHET NAEM REMOV* on LAN server. Harmless, right? He wasn't ruining anyone else's game. But it begs the question what *CHET NAEM REMOV* is doing on his hard drive to begin with. Did he download it just for that photo session, in an attempt to stir up drama? Probably not. Had he used it online? Probably. That's what it's designed for, and it's the only place it has any real use. Thus, through the power of logic, we can substantiate the claim that Queenhunter is a cheater faggot who should GTFO.

Also, his videos suck.
