I know the WF might look a little weird, but what do you think of it in general?

errrr looks very nice, but when players place a nuke in the place where you added a object/fence etc then you cant see it, depends how high the object is also you will lag throught the new objects

But looks kickass, also working on a Skinpack ;D

I forgot to say, this modification only works for the map C&C Complex. I'm making different buildings for different maps. Shape doesn't matter on this map because you can't get on the buildings ^^

And JsxKeule this is the song :

Heavy D & The Boyz - Now That We Found Love

Did ya feel that good feeling when someone else takes a screenshots of something and they are using your skins. It makes me feel good having shared something and that people use them. But thats just me. :]
