Umm. Shouldn't it say "Armed" when it's not placed and "Tick Tock" when it is placed as the timer has started? lol

Nice job anyway. I'll use this when I reinstall ren sometime later today/this week.

As far as I can tell "tick tock" is the 1st person view and "armed" is the 3rd person view. So it can say armed and tick tock in whichever order you wish as long as you switch from 3rd and 1st

As long as the c4 is in your hand the skin will say tick tock but at any other time it will say armed, in first person or third.

and I had the text as tick tock in third person and as armed in first but I mixed up the areas and it ended up being alright so I just kept it like that
