hey ho guys, its been a while since i have been studying, i even banned myself from everything jelly so i couldnt be distracted as that was what made me lose so much time.

but with uni now over till september, and summer relaxation kicking in, i thought id get back to finishing my skin pack, for at least the vehicles anyway, here she is...

weighing in at a hefty 11+ hours, it was not a 10 minute job and easily the hardest vehicle to skin thus far, also i had to relearn how to use photoshop after my long absence all comments welcome as usual, since im still banned from the jelly website you guys are first in line, get it while its hot.

the others of the U-WBG are also in this forum somewhere on the 5th page and back if ur interested.

Very nice skin as usual

(About your ban, I unbanned you from Ren and TS last Friday I believe, can't do the forums and hopefully an admin will get on that today ) looks good. too bad u cant use apart skins for this tank.

Recommend you to change the flame to something chemical.

Just to make it realistic.

That Ftank is made up for my two favorite colours. Also green, white, and black together is just sick colours in general.

damn man the green chem spray is pretty neat, i was thinking of a more techno effect, more like green circles like a sound wave coming out, not a gas or fire.

[EDIT]

hey guys ive had a few people come back to me with problems, and i asked them to send me the file they had and half the image was missing, meaning corrupt data. just delete and re download if problems occur.

otherwise pm me and ill send you one directly thanks
