I'd like some comments on my newest interior, its been quite alot work as you can see

And the music you hear is a Dutch song 'Laat maar waaien'

Here is the video : <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4JHaZjM3Rbc>

And some screenshots. I noticed I didn't film the engineers room when it got damaged, you can see it on the 4th screenshot.

(Ofcourse I might release it soon)

I already commented this on youtube. One thing I should add, is that garage door included in the release? I like it opening the way it does already Otherwise, this is definitely one of your best, I'd say it's second to the airstrip interior.

The moment I saw the engi with the open magazine, I knew Di3 would have put porn on it.

Thanks for the comments

The garage door will not be included. Its one of my previous releases from a long time ago I think I should make a new one.
