nice glitchin Your not really riding on top because its a bug in the game. If you really were riding on top it wouldn't show you with unlimited ammo

Uhm, those screenshots were taken of a friend of you, right? Cause you cant get in front of yourself when not in a vehicle, so the screenshots was taken by the dude flying the ORCA, right?
And who was flying the ORCA?

I wish the ion deployed... If the ion on top of the Tb or something (once the nuke/ion is deployed it stays in the air and you can fly away and the nuke/ion stays on top (in mid air) of the enemy building.[April 20, 2002: Message edited by: Alkaline]
