Dear renegade players, this message is intended for people living in the Netherlands.

We as a Gaming community are organizing a LanParty for more than 200 people and would like it if we can see some people who play renegade and of course other games like Red Alert 3, Counter Strike and Call of Duty. The event will take place in Goirle, this is a village near the city Tilburg in the country: the Netherlands. If you want to know more about this then drop me a message and I'll be get back to you as soon as possible. For those who can read Dutch, there is a website that can be visited via <http://lan.wittebolx.com> thanks and hopefully see you! greetings WittebolX since our community has a lot of duth people in it who are coming to the event, its possibly to arrange some sort of carpool idea for the people who dont have a car or whatever.

So if transportation is a problem, we can help you with that.

and yes.. Holland is well known for its policy on marihuana, but things have changed too bad its unable for me to come.

if you would do it closer, i might sponsor the 1GB switches and a few dedicated server.

we did that for the ROC in vlissingen once.

@Reborn: We organised it (2 friends of mine and myself) and i believe there where around 30 members from our community and around 70 from clans who are 'friends of the community'.

And by the looks of it i believe we need to discuss a possible V2 on this. People loved and enjoyed it.

@Renalpha: Thx for the offer but we keep the switches and dedi's that we already have instead of using equipment from others.
