I'm waiting for his undead body to run into downtown LA and start dancing with other zombies.

Probably the worst timing ever; that will definitely be overshadowed.

Although I'm not a pop fan, I liked MJ's music. He's done some good stuff. Rest in peace buddy.

yeah, she sure picked a crappy time to die

if you had asked people yesterday what they thought of michael jackson most would probably have said he's a fuckin weirdo but now that he's no longer alive the only thing people can say was he made good music

people are odd

Well I think many people would still stand by that he did get pretty weird by the '90s and '00s, but he is an icon of our time, and the most popular musician of all time. He was also found 'not guilty' on the pedophilia charges; when he dies I believe he deserves at least some more respect than to just be remembered as a weird guy.

Men in Black:

"Elvis did not die, he just went home"

And now:

"Michael Jackson did not die, he just went home"

If you catch my drift.

I saw the news here about the death of MJ.

OMFG! Sony's reserves of MJ CD's are completely sold out and BOL.COM claims to sell approximately 1 CD every 10 seconds xD
He's dead and immediately every one wants a CD

I don't see what's so sarcastic about that, it's plain truth, HMV's website doesn't even load properly so many people are trying to order his shit.

All this Michael Jackson malarky people rushing to watch his videos on youtube. When rick astly dies are people going to start rick rolling themselves?

rick roll > <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oHg5SJYRHA0> < has 22,612,706 views, quite popular it would seem.
