Basically, there's an incompatibility between scene shaders and the version of the wireframe stealth that you have installed. Unfortunately, the bugged version is the only one that I know has been made public, so the only way you can avoid the black screen and have wireframe stealth is to remove sceneshaders.sdb from your data directory.

1. EKT isn't dead.

2. Scrin got kicked and banned out of EKT for cheating.
