All you're buildings other than the refinery have been destroyed. There's two of you on your team. You're being attacked by a Mammoth Tank backed-up by a sniper. Now you can keep the last building repaired. But you need to destroy the tank and kill the guy with him. You can only get the base characters and you have approx $500. I was in this situation yesterday. I kept attaching C4 to the tank but the guy inside was an engineer, so whenever I died he repaired the tank. So what would you do?

tell that sniper to get off his ass and do his job when the engine hops out than repair the tank and hop in or you could shoot the tank wait till the engine hops out and jump in as soon as he's done repairing than run him over OMG I spent so much time trying to destroy the tank I didn't think of stealing it. Anyway it still would have been hard to pull off, they had us cornered in the building. Oh well another lesson learned. [ April 23, 2002: Message edited by: Lukerd ]
