I am in very much of rush here so

A model of a musket that replaces the sniper rifle.

Well after seeing his poor ss and having more time now, here what it really looks like:

You really should put a scope on it. It would look better and make more sense. I would use it if you added one.

Thing is that would be a completely different rifle. I'm guessing this rifle is around the 1600-1700's. Wubwubs rifle looks more of the rifle that shoots little iron balls.

If you want a scoped one You'll need to make the western sharpsrifle concept ->
Toggle Spoiler

Wubwub you should work on the textures. The model is pretty decend only the texture lets it down.
