I forgot my password for their forum, there is a login button but i can't find a password recovery option :/

Does anyone know if its even possible to recover passwords on their site?

Try this link:

It's incredibly difficult to make any sense of their system, but I think that should solve your problem. Make sure after you reset your password; you sign back in on the main site (<http://portal.commandandconquer.com/>) and just click on forum, and you'll be signed in there too.
