it looks like it has no bloom, your vid card (if it's old) may not support bloom

Do you have bloom and shaders enabled ingame?

Or whatever is needed to be turned on under bhs.dll options?

I only say [x]*shaders, and vsync, high quality shadows, aa and image quality png or something like that

I cant find anything named bloom in the bhs.dll

EDIT: i messed around with all the settings and tested it, and i got this result but its not nearly as close as the one crysis got, am i missing some files here or what?

so you said you downloaded a bloom effect from my website, so ok but there are only 2 released bloom effects.

did you download this one:

<http://renegadeskins.forumieren.de/custom-shaders-f94/shadersbloom-effect-t653.htm>

or this:

<http://renegadeskins.forumieren.de/custom-shaders-f94/shadersscrin-s-bloom-n-shaders-t794.htm>

ehhbm

It does indeed have a shade of red to it in the sunlight, not saying the shaders are epicly amazing z0mg! but yes.....snow does "glow" red.

Wrong! Sunlight passing through the atmosphere can obtain a red tint, the snow just reflects that, snow itself doesn't glow at all.
