It's quite nice, although didn't fobby ask for people not to include renegade x in the title of their skins?

You're improving, GoodOneDriver. Keep up the effort and you'll be making some great skins soon! And don't forget that tutorials (not just Renhelp ones) are really helpful.

This is quiet good, GOD (lol)...a bit realistic as well.

And yeah you have to use overlay and then learn how to use the select tools so you have more control over your skin. And Altzan told me about overlay lol

O, I think I remember now
Now that I think about it, I need to make more skins...
