Aircrap needs to understand that most of the people here hate him. All he reads are the few posts of people that stick up for him, although I don't understand why they do stick up for him at all. If Aircrap really thought about it, he would have no alternative but to realize that he's been a complete jerk and that people dislike his attitude, his grammar-checking everyone, or his lame flames that have no power behind them (he's like a flame-thrower compared to a flame-tank). Now I understand that he was once a very helpful guy. That's what people say anyway. He's got the low number of 53 for his entrance to this forum, so you know he was looking forward to this game big time. He's got a lot of good points and a lot of useful information under his belt. He'd probably even be a kewl friend to meet and know. But the fact of the matter here is that he's a conceited, know-it-all, grammar-checking, flaming anyone at all that doesn't agree with his exact point-of-view. This makes him a #1, state-of-the-art, AircraftCarrier-sized bunghole. He's the kind of gamer you don't want to meet because he's kewl; you want to meet him to kick the smack back down his throat and make him beg for mercy while he's kneeling and crying like the punka$$ he really is. AirCrap, you need to realize that most of the community doesn't like you. They may have really enjoyed your posts in the past, but count the posts man, use your fingers and toes if you have to but the fact of the matter, you complete moron, is that people find you to be an A$$hole!

community doesn't like you. They may have really enjoyed your posts in the past, but count the posts man, use your fingers and toes if you have to but the fact of the matter, you complete moron, is that people find you to be an A$$hole! Lets compare your entire assumption to your member number. It is somewhere in the range of 14,500. Now, assuming that you haven't been watching the forums for a long time, you're making wild guesses about who I am, what I do, what I have done, and so forth... You have no idea of what I really do for the WS Community. Oh sure, I flame people here. It bothers you that much? I think you need to seek mental help if you're offended by a person you'll likely never meet, who's flames are meant for comedy in almost every case. Now, have you checked ANY community fansite for ANY WS game besides the Dune series? You'd probably understand what I do for everyone, then. I've spent almost two years creating RA2\YR maps, RA2\YR wallpapers and war stories, about fifteen different C&C themed music tracks, RA2\YR map creation tutorials, my own website, working with the Renegade beta and aircraft beta, making Renegade fanfiction and wallpapers, Renegade maps, and much more... You have NO IDEA of what I do for people. Yeah, I realize that has almost nothing to do with this, but I wanted to put it in. You know why? Because you're assuming almost everything about me because of a forum post or two that corrects people's grammar. Time for some apologies: I'm sorry if you're offended by someone offering knowledge to you. If you can't take it, drop off the face of the Earth for all I care. I'm sorry that you're so emotionally and/or mentally unstable that you let me manipulate you into making a topic whining about what I do on a virtual forum. I'm sorry that you can't accept the reality that others ARE different from you, and unlike you or other people that you may know, I refuse to accept everyone as being equal, because to me; that is an impossibility. As someone said before, "Cry a river, build a bridge, and get the **** over it."

I joined this forum only the other day and while reading some of ACKs posts (like the "its Nod not NOD") i found it quite funny... a forum is a place for a bit of fun and a joke, you should never take something that you read too seriously, if there was no fun in this forum I would just leave and if you don't like what ACK does then maybe YOU are the one that should be leaving? I bet that everything that you said was based upon 3-4 topics flaming ACK

I can't say I hate someone on this board. That's too judgmental, so Ack flames, alot of people are guilty of the same thing - I am. Does that give someone the right to really hate someone? I think not, hate is a powerful word used too often and indiscriminately.... BTW Acks' responses are hilarious.... [ April 27, 2002: Message edited by: lenchmob ]

Okay, i'm usually a laid back guy, except when i'm not in a good mood (like now, which doesn't happen often ).But i'm starting to get sick of people creating new topics specialized for flaming. I fyou're going to flame someone, tell it to their face or on a topic already existing instead of cluttering up the forum.Okay, okay, i'm cool now .

ACK is a respected member of the RA2/Yuri forums, he has done much for the community there. On the renegade forum he is just a funny guy, I think it is very funny to see that every day there is a topic about him. Sure he flames a lot, i had my flame wars with him, but hey what is a world without a couple of flame wars. I hope he will do as much for the renegade community as he did for the RA2/Yuri community. i think you guys need to chill out and let him be, if you dont like him ignore him

Wow... someone finally made sense. If you want to talk s-h-i-t about them just post it. I don't know Ack and his Nod-NOD issue seemed to get alot of attention. Even I wrote a post asking to stop talking about that issue and post things about Renegade or related issues. Maybe he's cool or maybe not.. I don't know! I haven't had the opportunity to play a game with him or chat. If someone flames you then deal with it please. No only that everyone is entitled to his/her own opinion. <-----stepping off soap-box [ April 27, 2002: Message edited by: CDRREMLAP ]

hey! whatever happened to posting your flames on the general forum!? this forum used to be for game tactics and strategies once upon a time. if you're going to flame someone, do it in a flame tank in the game, or at least post it on the general!

So lets start this post off properly I'm new, and frankly have ignored this whole lets hate ACK thing, cause really it was too much effort reading all the stoopid posts over a little grammar.From the sounds of it ACK is a **** good man, who enjoys pointing out the idiosyncricies(sp?, proper use??) and really people are FAR too uptight.So how about everyone gets off their pedastool and start whinging about the aircraft patch and the fact that snipers can shoot down choppers in 5 shots. N0d rulz , keep up the good work ACK

Amen. I never have thought of ACK as an ass of the forums, rather he is an oldbie who is really annoyed with stupid n00b questions that flood any forum after release. Stupid questions get posted ten times more than they should, and ACK does not like that. I know the feeling from the Halo forums on Gamespy. If not for protest by some visible oldbies, the forum would have gone to complete hell weeks ago. If no one opposes stupid questions and lamers, then the forums go to sh!t.-Just my 2 cents...

The cat has posted some great info on here. I don't see what the problem is. Maybe if people spent as much time working on "TEAMWORK" as they did worrying about ACKthen these boards.....well we all know thats not going to happen so cut the brother some slack.

I dont see the problem with ACK. All he does is correct people on the term Nod. Whats wrong with that? He aint saying anything offensive. I find his posts very funny at times too. If you don't like someone stop talking to them, it's that simple. Use some RL commen sense in here. If you find ACK so annoying, that's your problem just ignore him. And seek help, I think someone put a U-boat up yours.ACK, you are entertaining, a great player, and a overall good guy, but your flaws might be a bit[/sarcasm] annoying at times.
