The top of the Harvester is Xena's work. I edited the top-arrows and the back, although Xena made that first.
The wheels, and the rest of the harvester is my own work.

Enjoy!

Wow, now that you show that it's amazing how similar they are. Great idea basing the harvester on this.

But what about the Nod Harvester?

Or a mammoth for that matter. Searched for a mammy but nothing came up.

I had to compare them, lol.

Comparison!

I'll be doing a Mammy, don't worry. No offense to Keule but his Mammoth leaves something to be desired on the top.

Are you going to include Adaptive Armour on the Mammy like in Kane's Wrath? That would be cool.

The Mammy on top is normal and the one on the bottom has been upgraded with AA. Can you see the cool looking blue parts?
