Bit of a weird thread really I guess. But I was just wondering about some of the people that have come and gone around the renegade scene, and was curious as to what happened to them...

Zion was a furry that was involved in the AR total conversion mod. He was a pretty nice guy, his last post on these forums is not very revealing as to what happened to him.

v00d00 was a hacker/cracker type with mad programmin skillz. I know he hung out around st0rm for a while, and he was invovled int he l2j project for a bit. He made allot of cool things, and also not so cool things, but he was always hard to track down even when he was here...

Jessica, she created the first CrazyCTF mods years ago with some help from Zunnie. She said she needed to spend some time with her Dad or something. Cannot quite remember...

Bajadera created the baja-clan and used to part own/rented space, or something to this effect a datacenter in Amsterdam, aswell as a night club. Was generally a good guy, but kinda drifted...

There is actually allot more people I am curious about, but do not have the time right now to go further with the list. Please feel free to add your own people, and please shed any light on the mentioned people.

Bajadera joined our server a few months ago. IIRC he ripped off a few people with his server rental but I'm not too sure about this anymore (been a while).

Doesn't v00d00 still appear very rarely? Check in the long grass.

Oh, hai.

This was brought to attention with me by a good friend from Renz0r-Gaming, Reaver11.

I'm about, left AR due to Chronofag and the majority of the APB team being immature pricks, and I guess I lost interest in Renegade from there. I am planning on coming back soon though, possibly with a few maps (I may rejoin AR too and continue working on that).

If you want to get in contact with me, my MSN has changed. It should be in the name of my old MSN (remove nicknames if applicable), but other than that, check my profile.

Good to see Renegade is still going strong and I'll be back shortly, I promise. ^_^

Regards,

Zion

Back when I was still doing the RS gig (so like 4+ years ago) I tracked jessica down to get permission to use crazyctf. Even then it was hard to do. She had switched names and wasn't really active any more. I can't for the life of me remember what it was. I'm pretty sure she is long gone now.

I think v00d00 just pretty much moved on.

I've seen v00d00 a while ago in the private TT channel, and he was at the time interested in Ren, but this was a while ago.
Not sure what he's doing now, but I'm pretty sure he hasn't totally forgot about Renforums.
