Please use the format I posted to report your wins. Add (Round 1) to your topic title.

You can report until the round 1 deadline.

Maybe we should do a rematch. Since you won us so easily last time, you should have no problems winning next week, no?

the team you just played

notice he said rematch

your team failed to provide screenshots proving it won, so he's asking if you'll play them again

I'll link Gozy here. I'd love to play another big game as neither of us will be playing next Saturday against anyone else, we could maybe do a rematch. But of course, not up to me in any way.

How do you have a 20 player game, and all 20 people fail to take a ss FOR A TOURNEY WHERE SS IS REQUIRED AS PROOF?!

lo!L itZ tru daT tho.

Now correct English. It doesn't matter if all 20 of you confirm the outcome of the match. A ss was requested, and a ss will be presented for the sake of keeping things orderly.

Indeed it is. I hope we'll get a rematch AND we'll win, take screenshots (like it's supposed to be done) and Os goes to the loser bracket.

No RTsa. That would be unfair as everybody knows that we lost the first. Incase we win the rematch, we will arrogate a third round to to have 2 out of 3 situation hmm, that might be a good solution, seems fair, but thats not up to me.

but, plz make it a double, so we dont have to wait for weeks, until the third time is played yuo already lost, we wo, so i think we made it to the next round due we got ss provided to MrMom, also you cna rematch whenever you want, than we rather play 5 maps instead of 2 so no lose bracket for us since we won this match.

you won but you didn't follow the instructions so technically it doesn't count or matter unless MrMom wants to bend the rules for you

hah, hah hah

... makes no sence at any point as such i provided anything which was neded as far as i know, nothing "iligal" happend which can clear this game as Replayed, Win is win proof is proof, idc playing rematch but as said we won and nothing which can change that, so if tihs owuld not count, this would be so damn dumb ...

TD and I have talked about this and have come to a decision. I received proof from {Os} that they won the match and TK2 has admitted they lost so {Os} advances.

For a future reference anybody who does not post proof of both sides of each match will cause the match to be voided and replayed. This is going to be strictly enforced.

Aww damn. Should've been like this from the beginning.

And yeah, wiener, I don't think anyone denied of losing the match.

But indeed, rules are rules and they should be followed.

{OS} advances, congrats!

TheKoSs2 will have another chance in the lower bracket, good luck!
