Looks as though his feet are in the water from what we can see.

thick feet would actually add more walk-on-waterness but, to actually walk on water they has to be huge

It looks quite good

So does the water

Only -1 thingy is that you could have posted some more close up ss, now we can only see the front of the character from a distance.

And about the fps, when you take a ss, your fps always drops.

OK, who downloaded this 70 times

Looks nice, but ss should have been a little closer.

I bet it was Good-One-Driver downloading his own skin over and over. I like you man but this ugly Chem fag sucks fat dick.

edit:

oh damn I take what I said earlier back. Just downloaded and saw it...not bad at all. Looks like it got crapped out by some alien.

Next time use better screenshot preview!

It looks like a flock of radioactive seagulls came and crapped on his head...

Points for consistency though.

The skin's not really anything good. It looks very weird, and not in a good way... mostly due to the fact that it looks like you just threw some effects on him and called it a day.

also holy fuck that water and everything else is ugly as hell, why do people think bloom looks good

Which should prove that it's a bad thing, actually.
