Why must you show off everything else as well as what you're releasing? It's lame..

Then get both a screenie and video. Yes, video is better, but some people won't bother looking at a skin if no screenie is attached.

...Me included, because usually I'm at school and they banned youtube.

Well if they look or not, I made the skin for myself, I released because others might like it too, and some already downloaded so it doesn't make me sad, I won't make screenshots.

Ugh, flamboyant skins like these are why I don't have that many skins- they pollute sites that have decent skins, making me want to ramjet myself in the fucking head before I can find any that I actually like.

I will say it easy and short.

I have no interest in seeing a show off movie with tons of otherskins. (I dont care if those skins are released yes or no).

[Especially if most are advantage, buildingbars, stankmuzzle]

And besides, if the skin was made 'for yourself' and you thought others might like it, which is why you won't post pictures, then why go through the trouble to make a video?
TWO videos in fact.

Looks like a lot of advantage skins to me...

BTW, nice building bars (cheater >.>)

Indeed I made 2 videos for renegadeforums because it's more clear to see it in a video.

I do not mean to show off in any kind of way, I just made a skin for you and do not mean any kind of lameness.

I will not make pictures because it's not needed to, you can just watch a fricken 20 second video. I made 2 so you can see the effect better, the reason I didn't make pictures because it doesn't show the whole skin properly!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

If you do not like the skin, I don't care but don't go flaming at me. If you want pictures so bad make them yourself.

By the way, shut up about building bars in my topic. They are no kind of cheat and alot of people use them. I barely play in sniper servers and I don't care about advantage skins but I just like a bright colourful Renegade.

Anyone who prefer to keep on flaming at me can kiss my butt.

They are considered cheating in most communities and on the renegadeforums.

This is a good definition of "Advantage Skin". Bright colored characters/vehicles/weapons are much easier to spot than the default textures. So now we can conclude that bright skins are in fact advantage skins.

You say that you like "a bright colourful (=colorful) renegade". So in fact you do say: I like advantage skins.

No sir, I will not kiss your butt. Also, I would not define those comments as "flaming". A better word for this would be "negative criticism".

That's all.

Have a nice day.
